Legal News for Law Enforcement in Brevard and Seminole Counties

State Attorney Norm Wolfinger

August 2012
Volume XXXI, Issue 1

Message from State Attorney Norm Wolfinger

How does the time pass so fast! After twenty-one years of producing “The Rap Sheet”, my seasons as your State Attorney are coming to an end. Twenty Eight years plus eleven before election, and looking back, I couldn’t have asked for a better or more satisfying career. For those from the old days retired or who have passed on, to those still working with us, along with our newest members of the law enforcement team, I say thank you! Thank you for your passion, dedication, and professional service all directed toward making our community a better and safer place in which to live and raise our families. You have all made me and my staff proud to work along side of you on the law enforcement team. I am confident that your next State Attorney will also recognize that we in Brevard and Seminole Counties serve with the finest and best law enforcement in the State of Florida.

There was not a ton of new criminal laws that were passed during the last legislative session, but some that did pass are very important and significant. Finally there is some relief through felony charges of those giving false information to law enforcement involving missing children. As we can all agree, and I am sure I can speak for our excellent departing Brevard Sheriff Jack Parker, HB0947 is needed and may prevent the loss of law enforcement lives in the future. Hopefully, the summary provided in the Rap Sheet will be of some help and assistance to you. Enjoy and continue to learn. Until next time, Take Care and Be Safe.
