Worthless Check Program Information

As a victim of a worthless check, you may file this report with the Office of the State Attorney, 18th Judicial Circuit, provided there is sufficient information and that the check meets all eligibility guidelines. The Office of the State Attorney will seek full restitution for victims whenever possible, however, please keep in mind that the Worthless Check Program can make no recovery guarantees. By submitting this check to the program, you surrender control of the check to the criminal process and forego the opportunity to pursue civil debt collections.

Check writers are encouraged to make payments in full.

A check will be deemed ineligible and returned to you to pursue a civil remedy, if a filed check is later determined to be:

- A stop payment check where the issuer acted in good faith and with reasonable cause in stopping payment,
- A check issued by someone not competent or of legal age,
- A check dishonored due to bank error or failure to notify the check writer of bank adjustment of a check,
- A check issued to pay an obligation arising from an illegal transaction.

What to do after your Affidavit is filed with the Program

- Please do not accept direct payments from check writers. Should the check writer contact you to make a payment, refer them to the Office of the State Attorney.
- You may contact the Office of the State Attorney for case updates at any time.
- Please allow a minimum of 90 days to pursue restitution.
- If the check writer does not comply with the program, the case may be reviewed for possible criminal prosecution.
- If we are unable to recover restitution and/or the check is not eligible for prosecution, you may request the check(s) be returned to pursue a civil remedy.

Filing Instructions

1. Fill out Affidavit completely.
2. Attach check(s) and copy of the Notification Letter, as well as all supporting documents such as the Certified Mail Return Receipt and Undelivered Letter, if applicable.
3. Mail Worthless Check Affidavit and all other correspondence to the address listed on the front of this Affidavit.
4. Once a report has been filed, ALL restitution payments must be coordinated by the Office of the State Attorney. Should the check writer contact you to make a payment, direct them to the Office of the State Attorney.

REMEMBER: DO NOT ACCEPT PAYMENT DIRECTLY FROM THE CHECK WRITER!
